

4/23/19

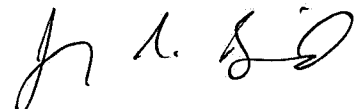

Dear Westray Battle,

It is with honor and appreciation that I deliver your invite to the 2020 Ponce de Leon Invitational Golf Tournament. We will be returning to LaQuinta Resort and Club in Palm Springs, CA, February 19 to February 23, 2020, to rekindle the magic that took place there in 2009. The group coordinator, Jim Burke who I worked with in preparing the 2009 Ponce, is again my primary point of contact. He's proud to have the Ponce returning, and we are working on an itinerary that will balance plenty of golf with comfortable fellowship.

At the 2020 Ponce we have the opportunity to enjoy the California desert golf, poolside casitas, and most certainly, a "lively scene" to say the least. The Ponce will be contested over 4 outstanding golf courses with the ability for unlimited daily play, schedule permitting.

More information will follow, and even though we're 10 months out, it is important that you confirm your acceptance of this invitation by June 1. Feel free to call or email me with any questions.

Yours truly,
